

Home Sweet Home

ep:

A Big Boat
Needs Big Sail

Honey,
we will have
dinner outside.
No need to make any food.

...But when I
check our expenses, they have exponentially
increased as well.
In contrast, our savings have decreased
compared to the time before your promotion.

A 3D animated scene featuring a man and a woman in a rustic wooden house. The man, on the left, has dark brown hair and is wearing an orange short-sleeved button-down shirt. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. The woman, on the right, has dark hair and is wearing a blue long-sleeved top. She is also smiling and has her hand resting on the man's shoulder. The background shows the interior of a wooden house with a thatched roof and large windows looking out onto a lush green landscape. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image, containing text.

No worries,
I follow you,
Honey, but please do not be too strict.

Of course,
as long as it
aligns with our plan.

Guidance Note

- Be disciplined with your expenditures even if your income increases by sticking to the plan.
- Adjust your financial plan by increasing the amount in your action plan and shortening the achievement timeline as much as possible. For example, reducing the timeline for principal reduction or paying off the loan faster is better when your income increases.

“Home Sweet Home” is a comic-style short story series about the daily life of a low-middle-class couple. Each episode includes educational messages on family financial management, the loan approval process, product features, and effective loan usage.

If you have any good tips related to financial management, please share them with us via our Facebook or email us at info@firstfinance.com.kh. We welcome the opportunity to include them in the story if we find they benefit other audiences in the same way.
