SHARED MESSAGE FROM THE CEO AND CHAIRPERSON

First Finance continues to pursue our vision of enabling Cambodians fulfill their dream of home ownership. As one of only a few companies specialized in housing finance, learning from experiences and challenges is an on-going process. In 2017, First Finance continued its efforts initiated in 2016 on internal strengthening. Such initiatives included the establishment of the Learning and Development Unit to focus on up-skilling our staff's professional development, regular review of credit policies and processes, and deployment of a new Management Information System.

In terms of the mortgage market, 2017 presented a positive trend in affordable housing. Three large projects in affordable housing were launched in 2017 with completion of construction anticipated by 2019. This is in addition to a few smaller projects which focus on affordability (prices ranging between USD 20,000 and USD 50,000). While demands for high-end condominium projects continued at a lower level compared to a few years ago, several developers shifted their attention to middle income households who are looking for a more luxurious living environment.

While non-performing loans remain a challenge, First Finance concentrated its efforts in the 1st half of the year by addressing root causes, which included the revision and development of new policies and processes and then training existing and newly recruited staff in these new policies and processes. Then in the 2nd half of the year, the team concentrated on growing a healthy portfolio.

Deployment of a new Management Information System (MIS) was another major project for First Finance in strengthening its systems. In 2017, after a thorough review of proposals, First Finance selected Morakot VB as the core MIS for the management of its portfolio. The MIS includes an automated workflow in the credit approval process as well as a client monitoring module in addition to a traditional loan management system. This new MIS enables First Finance to make improved and timely decisions.

First Finance was delighted to have been selected as one of the ten semi-finalists for The European Microfinance Award 2017 on "Microfinance for Housing". The award highlights the role of microfinance in supporting access to better quality residential housing for low income, vulnerable and excluded groups, with no or limited access to housing finance in the mainstream sector. This year's Award has been extremely competitive, with 37 applications from 23 countries. With this recognition First Finance is spurred onto continuing our growth, learning and professionalism to support our existing customers and reach more new homebuyers or those looking to improve their homes in 2018.

ABOUT US

First Finance Plc is a joint venture company established between Cambodia-based First Home Plc, Singapore-based Phillip Capital, Luxembourg-based Insitor Fund, Cambodia-Laos Development Fund and Norway-based Norfund. The company was granted its license on 23 April 2009 by the National Bank of Cambodia, and became the first financial institution to specialize in housing finance in Cambodia. The company is focused on providing long-term Home Loans and Home Improvement Loans, and medium-term Home Equity Loans to underserved low and middle-income Cambodian households without access to formal commerical lending.

As the founding company of First Finance, First Home Plc has tested and refined its initial housing finance concept and has conducted studies on the market needs for housing loans. It has thus provided First Finance a foundation for growth and expansion.

OUR RESULTS

The year 2017 marks the 8th year of our commitment to support wealth creation and stability for underserved households - low to middle-income Cambodian families. By the end of 2017, our loan portfolio was $20.1 million - a 2% increase from 2016. People earning less than $6 per day received 15% of our loans, while 50% of loans went to those earning less than $12 per day. Due to the Prakas from the National Bank of Cambodia on Credit Risk Grading and Provisioning in December 2017, we increased our risk coverage over nonperforming loans which negatively affected the profitability for the year of $44 thousand. Non-performing loans had a negligible net effect on profitability because unlike most MFIs, we hold real property as collateral.

In 2017 we focused on staff capacity building and management of non-performing loans. We managed a 2% portfolio growth, but experienced disappointing levels due to high idle cash and high operating costs (due to stagnant growth). Despite the low profit, we saw positive signs in the second half of the year where loan disbursement reached over $900K per month as compared to just over $300K per month in the first half of the year and non-performing loans dropped to 3.51% as compared to 4.52% a year ago.

The number of loans to women accounted for 58% of our loan portfolio in 2017. Self-employed,

When Phin Nalin saw a First Finance flyer that explained about taking loans for housing at affordable rates she decided to contact First Finance to find out more. Given they no longer had any land sufficient for a house she resolved to buy land and build her new home. Her income of $595 per month from her business enabled her to first take out a $5000 land loan in January 2017 to buy land in Chamka Loeu district, Kampong Cham province. She then took out a further $12,500 construction loan in August 2017 to build a 4.3m by 15m home.

The loan term is for 180 months and Phin Nalin was so happy that First Finance was able to provide such a long tenure for her to confidently repay the amount and that the loan covered the full construction budget. She and her mother have moved into their new home and she gives thanks for this "First Finance product that allows me to have a chance of living in a real house again".

Ms Phin Nalin was living with her widowed mother in her house situated along the national road in Kampong Cham province. REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Extracted from the audited financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 December 2017

OPINION

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of First Finance Plc. ("the Company") which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 December 2017, and the income statement, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2017, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Cambodian Accounting Standards and relevant regulations and guidelines issued by the National Bank of Cambodia.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Cambodian International Standards on Auditing ("CISAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the sub-decree on the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants and Auditors promulgated by the Royal Government of Cambodia, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

OTHER MATTER

The financial statements of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2016 were audited by another auditor who expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements on 31 March 2016.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The other information obtained at the date of the auditor's report is the Report of the Board of Directors. Management is responsible for the other information

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with Cambodian Accounting Standards and relevant regulations and guidelines issued by the National Bank of Cambodia, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with CISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with CISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Mr Pech Chy used to be a soldier in the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces. While fighting the remaining Khmer Rouge forces in the mid-1990's he stepped on a landmine and his injuries meant that he had to have his right leg amputated.

Despite this devastating event he worked hard raising pigs with his wife, Mrs. Oeun Yoeun and producing rice wine to sell. Having to bring up their three sons and a daughter, it took almost a lifetime to save so that he could build a house for his family in Phnom Proek district in Battambang province.

However, he did not have enough savings to complete the house and after a neighbor referred him to First Finance, he and his wife decided to take out a home construction loan to complete their house. With their combined income of $496 per month in April 2017 they were able to get a loan of $10,000 payable over 120 months.

Mr Pech Chy said that he was thankful for the long tenure of the loan that enabled him to make repayments and the ease of credit approval. He was particularly appreciative that "First Finance did not discriminate against me and provided me with a loan to complete my dream house".
